Ref:- Letter received from NSS State Liaison Officer, Govt. of Maharashtra & Regional Directorate of NSS, Pune

Sub:- Accessible India Campaign (Sugamya Bharat Abhiyan)" for creating universal accessibility in built environment, transport system and ICT eco-system

Dear Sir / Madam,

With reference to above letter, it is informed that, The Department of Empowerment of Persons with Disabilities (DEPwD) has formulated Accessible India Campaign (Sugamya Bharat Abhiyan)" for creating universal accessibility in built environment, transport system and ICT eco-system. The Department has made a request for launching of the Campaign by the Hon'ble Prime Minister on 3rd December, which is celebrated as the "International Day of Persons with Disabilities".

On this subject, you are requested to organise the programme in a befitting manner, by way of awareness generation on the subject. Programmes may be organised accordingly, within the available resources. The DEPwD will make available the Publicity Material, which will be sent to you as soon as received.

Brief report mentioning No. of Volunteers involved & nature of activities conducted along with few photos may be sent to NSS District Co-ordinators.

The NSS District Co-ordinators is requested to compile the report received from Colleges and send the details- No. of College participated, No of Volunteers participated and nature of activities conducted along with few photographs in respective District to the undersigned for onward transmission to Ministry.

Looking forward for your co-operation.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Prof. B.S. Bidve,
NSS Programme Co-ordinator.
