Observation of 26th June, 2017 as International Day against Drug Abuse & illicit trafficking – reg

Sir,

With reference to the subject cited above, it is to inform that by resolution 42/112 of 7th December, 1987, the UN General Assembly had decided to observe every year on 26th June as the “International Day Against Drug Abuse & Illicit Trafficking”. The Narcotics Control Bureau, being the apex nodal agency of Govt. of India for prevention of drug abuse and illicit trafficking, is functioning under the Ministry of Home Affairs and celebrates this occasion every year for a fortnight.

Like every year, this year also the Narcotics Control Bureau, Mumbai Zonal unit is planning to organise various awareness programmes all over the city on the adverse effect of drug abuse and the menace of illicit trafficking which is adversely affecting the youth of the society and at the same time hampering the socio-economic structure of the society as a whole.

In this regard, it is intimated that in this direction to spread mass awareness against ill effect of drugs abuse Narcotics Control Bureau in collaboration with Nashabandi Mandal (Maharashtra) is organising a mass awareness programme for school and college students on 28th June 2017 at Ravindra Natya Mandir, Prabhadevi, Dadar at 1100 hrs to 1300 hrs. In this regard you are requested to direct the school and colleges to join hands in the social cause and take initiative to send staff and students (as many as possible) of schools and colleges to participate in the said awareness programme to raise the voice against the drug menace in the society. The programme will include the presence of Hon'ble Social welfare minister (State of Maharashtra) Sh. Raj Kumar Badole, Sh. Sidharth Jadhav (Actor) and Sh. Akshay Kumar (Actor), interactive session with Doctor for Psychiatry (KEM Hospital), HIV patients and prize distribution for "slogan on whatsapp" and "Poster designing" competitions.

A line of confirmation at the earliest will be highly solicited.

Yours faithfully,

(Kumar Sanjay Jha)
